List of the Society's Publications.

THE BOOKS printed by the Bibliographical Society can only be supplied to its own members, but new members may purchase the publications of previous years, and members who have lost or damaged any of their books can obtain a second copy at the prices named. But where an asterisk is prefixed, the books can only be supplied in sets, and in no case can more than one duplicate copy of any book be supplied to the same member. Subject to this condition purchase for presentation is also allowed, but the Council retains the right of refusing any application, without necessarily assigning a reason.

A few extra copies have been struck off of Mr. Reed's "List of Books and Papers on Printers and Printing" (Transactions, Vol. 3), and of Mr. Gray's "William Pickering" (Transactions, Vol. 4). Price, in each case, 2s. 6d. Extra copies of individual papers have also been printed for presentation to their authors, and, in the case of Mr. Hyett's "Rules for County Bibliographies," for gratuitous distribution. But neither these extra copies, nor the News Sheets—everything of interest in which is reprinted in the Transactions—are reckoned as necessary to a complete set of the Society's Publications.

FIRST SERIES.

[Sm. 4to. Grey wrappers. Printed by Blades, East & Blades.]

Transactions of the Bibliographical Society. Vols. I–VII. London: Printed for the Society, etc. 1893–1903.

With the exception of Volume IV, each volume was issued in two sections. The first section of Vol. I was called "Parts 1 and 2," the second section, "Part 3." In other volumes the sections were called Part I, Part II, respectively on the wrapper, and Part I had also a temporary title-page, while that to Part II covered the whole volume. In Volume VI the title-page to Part II was inadvertently made to refer to that Part only instead of to the whole volume, and an additional title-page was afterwards sent out. Volumes I and II are sold only in complete sets. Prices:—Volume I, Part III, 3s. 6d.; Volume III, Part I, 7s.; Part II, 3s. 6d.; Volume IV, 10s. 6d.; Volume V, Part I, 6s., Part II, 4s. 6d.; Volume VI, Part I, 5s. 6d., Part II, 5s.; Vol. VII, 10s. 6d.

P R E F A C E.

THE following List was originally intended as a mere Index to the valuable documentary annals of the book-trade to be found in the Returns of Aliens as published by the Huguenot Society. But the periods which have elapsed between the issue of the parts of that work—the editing of which must have bristled with difficulties—have given opportunity for some amount of expansion. All names from the Letters of Denization, published by the same Society, that could be thought to belong to the subject, have been included, and many other works have been constantly laid under contribution, so that it may fairly be hoped that a very large proportion of foreign booksellers, printers, and binders who resided in England during the Tudor period are to be found in the List. Any English names that find a place by chance in the various records are of course duly noted.

For a few of the printers an attempt has been made to notice their productions, as they are very scarce, and no library seems to have a large collection of them.

The entries from the Returns of Aliens are very largely from Subsidy Lists; when, however, they come from some other source—such as the Registers of the Dutch Church included in those volumes—the source is mentioned just before the volume and page.

My thanks are due to the Council of the Huguenot Society, and to Mr. R. S. Faber, their Secretary, for early copies of the sheets of their publications, and for the large-hearted way in which they have condoned such extensive purloinings therefrom. It is to be hoped that they and the editors of their volumes will be pleased with this attempt to prove the usefulness of their works.

To Mr. E. Gordon Duff also, who sent me many names to be hunted for, and gave me invaluable suggestions, I am very grateful.

ALIEN MEMBERS OF THE BOOK-TRADE.

1583. ADRIAN, LEONARD, St. George, Southwark, stationer. Dutch. II, 332.
1587. — [AUDREAN], among those dead, gone, or having no goods. II, 409.
- It seems possible that the following entries may refer to the same person :
1561. Adriaen Boeckbinder (I 278), and Celiken Boeckbinders (I 284, his daughter).
1563. Leonard Adryanson, admitted brother of the Stationers' Company, 25 Feb. See Arber, i, 220.
1568. Leonard Adryanson (denization), from the dominion of Philip of Spain, 26 May. See Denizations, p. 2.
1571. Leonard Audrianson, St. Botolph's without Aldersgate, householder, denizen, and painter, in this realm 15 years, in this parish 9, and cometh to his parish church. Dutch. II, 52.
1550. AE, REINAERDT VANDER, met Steuen Myrman. (Mierdman, q.v.)
1583. ANDROWES, —, precinct of Blackfriars, Scotchman, servant to T. Vautrollier, q.v. II, 355.
1550. ARNOLDT, HENRY, Thames St. and Smithfield, bouckprenter. (Dutch Church Reg.) I, 204.
- There are two of this name mentioned in the Denization Rolls—one, 29 Dec., 1548, from the dominion of the Emperor, the other, 29 Oct., 1550, but no further information is given about them. Denizations, p. 8.
1571. ASTERHOWE, JAMES, Queenhithe Ward, stationer, born in Antwerp, no denizen, in England 7 years, and Sethe his wife, born in Antwerp. I, 447.
- 1562 } BAHERE, ROBERT, New Rents, typographus (Catalogus Eccles. or } Gallic.). I, 291.
1563. }
1582. — [BAHEIRE], St. Anne, Blackfriars, valuation iij li. II, 252.
- 1582-3 (?) — — Bridge Without Ward, feltmaker, and his wife and one servant, of the French Church, II, 291.

1599. BAHERE (continued) [BAHARE], St. Anne, Blackfriars, valuation x li. III, 50.

There is a denization of a Robert Baker from the dominion of the King of France, 9 March, 1562 (Denizations, p. 12), which perhaps may be this man.

The 1582-3 entry is inserted (although perplexing by the difference of abode), because Robert Bahere, of Southwark, feltmaker, apprenticed his son, Isack Bahere, to John Hunsworth, 28 Oct., 1581, for 8 years. See Arber II, 108. Isack was himself citizen and stationer in 1594. See Arber II, 191.

BASSANDYNE, THOMAS.

He is said by Dickson and Edmond (Annals of Scottish Printing, p. 273) to have been a native of Scotland, but Hallen, in his paper on "Huguenots in Scotland" in the Proceedings of the Huguenot Society of London, vol. II, p. 173, inclines to think him of Flemish origin. He also states that a printer named Waldgrave, a Huguenot, is mentioned in the State Papers (Scot.). But can this be the well-known printer Robert Waldegrave? [Note kindly furnished by Mr. R. S. Faber.] See also under KIRTNER.

In the Denizations, p. 16, occurs the name of James Bassantyne, from Scotland, as having taken out letters of denization 3 June, 1562.

1567. BEAU CHESNE, JEAN DE, Farringdon Without Ward, French, no denizen, servaunt, 2 years here. I, 364.

Thomas Vautrollier's first book was this writing-master's A booke containing Divers Sortes of hands. 1570. See Dickson and Edmond, Annals of Scottish Printing, p. 378. See notice of its first publication in Paris, 1550, Trans. Bibliog. Soc., III, 49.

1583. — [BEAWCHESNE], Farringdon Within Ward, Frenche, Sholl-master. II, 338.

1599. — [BEAUCHEN], St. Anne, Blackfriars, valuation xx s. III, 50.

1618. — [BEAUSHAN], Farringdon Within Ward, Frenchman, born in Paris, "confesseth himself vnder the souerainety of King James, and is the Princes seruant." III, 204.

See Hazlitt (Gray's Index) for publications of his, 1570-1602; he is mentioned in Arber also. See Vol. v, index. He was in Blackfriars in 1597 according to Hazlitt.

BERGHE, NICOLAUS VAN DEN. See HILL, NICHOLAS.

1550. BERNAERDT, DAVID, of Antwerp, "bouckprenter, met Thomas Reinot." Dutch Church Reg. I, 203.

Thomas Raynald, to whom the above probably refers, was at the sign of the Star, in St. Paul's Churchyard, at this date.

1549. BERTHELET, THOMAS.

Mention is made of "M. Barthelette's Ale" between entries of St. Andrew's, Holborn, and "The strete side." The aliens therein are Gillam Jebbet (valuation vij li.), Cornelius Garrett, his servant, and John Burnett (valuation xls.).

The alley would probably be Crewkerne, or Crockhorne, which is mentioned in Berthelet's will. See Plomer's Wills, etc., p. 11.

As the name does not seem to be very common, it may be worth while to note here that in Richard Arnold's book, beginning "In this booke is Conteyned the names of y^e baylifs . . . of the cite of Londō . . ." F^o. (? 1503. See B. M. Cat. under Arnold, and Sayle, p. 1,299), on p. 5 recto occurs the name of Robert Bartylot in St. Magnus parish at London Bridge, whose "valewe" on 1 Dec., 1494, was v li. vi s. viij d. xv, and whose "stynt" was xij s. viij d. He may have been some relation.

1571. BIRCKMAN, AGNES, sent Andreas Fremorshem and Reynold Mercator as factors.

See below, Fremorsham and Mercator.

BIRCKMAN, ARNOLD, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within.

1541. — [BRIGHTMAN], "kepyng shopp and stock in Paules Church Yarde by Herry Harman, his factour." Valuation "C markes." I, 67.

1544. — [BREKEMAN], "merchant, straunger, in goodes lxxx li." I, 93.

1549. — [BRYCKMAN], valuation "C li." I, 159.

1556. He appears to have been made brother of the Stationers' Company before this year, as about Feb., 1556 he subscribed ijs. to the collection for Bridewell. See Arber I, 48.

1559. Arnoudt Birickman, boeckvercooper, appears in the list of the St. Lucas-Gilde at Antwerp in this year. (Liggeren, I, 213.)

1564. — [BRICKMAN], valuation "1 li." I, 303.

1564. 21 Apr. Arnold Brikman and Conrad Mollar of Cologne had 5 fats (tubs) and 2 maundes (baskets) of books from Frankfort Mart at Antwerp ready to ship for England, but, owing to the proclamation against bringing in foreign books, Sir W. Cecil had to write to the Lord Treasurer for them to have permission to bring them to London. Arber II, 63.

1567. — [BRICKEMAN], among the "Douchmen, denyzens." I, 359.

1571. — Andreas Frinorren, borne in Collen, factor for Arnolde Brickman of Collen, in England and in the said warde x yeares. I, 411.

— — Reynolde Marcator, bokeseller, seruaunt to the aforementioned Arnolde Brickman, borne in Cleveland, in England and in the said warde iiij^{or} yeares. I, 411.

1576. BIRCKMAN (continued). Arnold Brickman, valuation "xx li." Also Andrue Formishaa and Raynold Mercator, his servants. II, 179.
1582. — Arnold Brickman alone, valuation as in 1576. II, 252.
- 1582-3.— Gervinus, servant to one Brickman (see Grenen). II, 283.

BIRCKMAN, HENRY.

1535. — [BRIKMAN?], stationer from Culemborg, under the obedience of the Emperor. Denization 19 Feb., 1535. Denizations, p. 32.
- This stationer may have nothing to do with the Birkman family. Kuilenberg, where Veldener printed in 1483, is 12 miles south of Utrecht, in Gelderland.

BIRCKMAN, JOHN, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within.

- (?) Denization as Brikeman, from the dominion of the Emperor, having an English wife. In England 30 years. 14 Apr., 1541. Denizations, p. 32.
1541. — [BRIGHTMAN], "kepyng shopp in Paules Church Yard, withone John Calwood." Valued at "C markes." I, 67.
- This seems to suggest a separate establishment for Cawood in 1541.
1544. — [BREKEMAN], marchaunt, stranger, in goodes xx li. I, 93.
1547. [BRYKEMAN], stranger, xxx li. I, 134.
1549. [BRYCKMAN], straunger, dwelling within Andrewe Hester, xxx li. I, 159.

BIRCKMAN NOTES.

In spite of the painstaking article on "Franz Birkmann, Buchhändler in Cöln und Antwerpen 1510-1530, und seine Familie," by Albrecht Kirchoff in his Beiträge zur Geschichte des deutschen Buchhandels, 1^{tes} Bändchen, Leipzig, 1851, the above references to the Birkmans and other traces of their activities in England are very confusing.

FRANZ BIRCKMAN, who had much to do with Erasmus, especially as the agent or partner of Froben, is supposed to have died about 1530, when his name no longer appears on books as publisher.

ARNOLD BIRCKMAN is said by Kirchoff to be son of Franz, while he is called his brother in the Allgemeine Deutsche Biographie. His publications extend from 1532 to 1540, and in 1548 his widow's name appears.

In 1544 the will of John Reynes (Plomer's Wills, p. 7) speaks of Arnold and John Bryckman as selling in London to the booksellers. In the entries above, Arnold does not seem to be in England in 1541, while in 1544 he may have been here or his factor's name may simply be omitted. He was in London himself, 4 July, 1549, when he wrote to Dryander, at Cambridge, saying he had sent a specimen of the latter's Dictionary to Lyons. He seems to have been here in 1556, when the collection for Bridewell was made. In 1567

Arnold is called denizen, and after that he has factors here. Kirchoff, in speaking of John (p. 122), suggests that he is sometimes called Arnold and sometimes John. It may be that there were two Arnolds, one the brother, the other the son of Franz. The mention of Arnold and John together is distinct, first in Reynes' will, and then in the entries given above for 1544 and 1549, and many letters of John are extant. See Duff's Century, pp. 13-15. John Birckman published from 1566 to 1573, while his widow's name appears from 1575 to 1585. During Christopher Plantin's time (1555 to 1589) he had to do with three Birckmans at Antwerp—Arnold, Godfrey, and John. See Max Rooses' Christophe Plantin, p. 408. In 1571 the factors seem to have given two different accounts of their mission, being servants to Arnold (I, 411) and Agnes (II, 12). No information about the latter is forthcoming. She is mentioned too early to be the widow of John Birckman, but, having the same factors, may have been connected with Arnold.

Two additions to the list of 26 books given by Kirchoff as published by Franz Birckman, 1513 to 1529, may be mentioned here. One is a Biblia Sacra, printed by Petrus Quentel, of Cologne, in 1527 (fol.), on the last page of which appear two medallions, the upper one the printer's mark used by John and also by Francis II (see Duff, p. 14), the lower containing a † mark with ·FR· ·BIR· encircled by a border, with legend "Fortuna cum blanditur tunc vel maxime metuenda est." The second book is Fisher's De veritate corporis et sanguinis Christi in Eucharistia, adversus Johannem Oecolampadium, also Quentel, Cologne, 1527, with the same marks on the last leaf: in the printer's preface he says: "Quos quidem libros Franciscus Birckman bibliopola integerrimus de authoris ipsius in Anglia manu nobis excudendos dedit." The sign of the "pinguis gallina" was evidently a play upon the family name, as "Birkhuhn" is a brooding hen. It is possible that the same sign was used by them in St. Paul's Churchyard, as Charles Utenhove in a Latin letter to John Utenhove in London, 1562, speaks of Andreas Vrimursanus (factor to the Birckmans) as being with the booksellers at the sign, he thought, of "pinguis gallina."

1571. BISHOP, GEORGE [BYSHOPPE], named with Cawood and Jugge as being with Reynold Mercator, the Birckmans' factor in St. Paul's Churchyard. (See note under MERCATOR.)

BLANCQUES, JOHN DE. See PLANCHE.

Arber I, 200. He was made free in 1597. Arber II, 718.

A Jasper Classon was made brother of the Stationers’ Company, 23 Oct., 1559. Arber I, 124. In 1576 there was a Jasper, a stranger in Singleton’s house. See R. of A., I, 179.
1550. CLUSEN, CORNELIS VAN, met S. Mijrmans (Mierdman, q.v.).

There is a denization of a Cornelius Claesson, 29 Jan., 1551 (Denizations, p. 47), which might perhaps be the above man. Also on May 31, 1572, the Church at Emden sent their blind brother Cornelis Claesson to the Dutch Church in London, asking them to find him employment, and stating that he had been in London before. See Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum, ed. Hessels, Vol. III, No. 185.

COCKES, JOHN, St. Faith's, Farringdon within.

Coldock was at the Green Dragon in St. Paul's Churchyard, 1569-88. He was fined for words spoken against Thomas Hacket (q.v.) in 1561, and was Renter with him in 1575-6, 1576-7. See Arber I, 183.

CRINITUS, JOANNES.

1544 (?) — [CRENETTES], St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, marchaunte, straunger, in goodes, x li. I, 93.

1547 (?) — [GRENETYS], valuation xx li. I, 134.

- 1549 (?) CRINITUS (continued) [GRENETYS]. valuation xv li. I, 159.

In all three of the above references Crenettes or Grenetys is the only name in St. Faith's Parish which is not certainly that of one connected with the book-trade. This tempts one to suggest that the Joannes Crinitus who printed Erasmus's de conscribendis epistolis at Antwerp, in 1546, may have had a shop in St. Paul's Churchyard in the same manner as the Birckmans. His name occurs at Antwerp also in 1540, as the printer of several books. See W. Nijhoff's Bibliographie, Nos. 85, 673, 1190.

CTEMATIUS, G. See ERVE.

1550. CUELEN, URBANUS VAN, Smithfield, "bouckprenter." Dutch Church Reg. I, 209.

From the following extracts we have some of his after history. He seems to have fled from Mary with many others to Emden, where he became a citizen, and resided perhaps from 1557 to 1571, when Plantin, in whose employ he was at some time, gave him his certificate for exercising his calling in Antwerp.

"Bislang unbekannt war der Emdener Drucker Urbaen van Collen von dem das öfther Bürgerbuch unter dem 19. Januar 1557 meldet: Vrbaen van Collen, ein boekdrukker, heft sine Borgerschap gewonnen, sein eidt gedaen, sall up pinxteren bethaelen." Ostfriesisches Monatsblatt VII, 1 Jan., 1879.

"Urban van Cuelen, compagnon imprimeur, m'a exhibé lecture d'attestation de sa preudhommeie, bonne renommée et vie chrestienne et catholicque et sans suspicion d'aucune hérésie, soussignée le 5. d'Octobre 1570, par Messire Marcellus Joannes Broeghel, Pasteur de l'Esglise de Saint André, et une autre de Messieurs de ceste ville d'Anvers, du 23. Juing 1571, soussignée vander Meere, Onder Schoutich, certifiant que ledict Urban lui avoit fait le serment deu et ordonné. Certificats délivrés aux imprimeurs des pays-bas par Chr. Plantin, publ. par Ph. Rombouts. Maatschappij der Antwerpsche Bibliophilen, Uitgave Nr. 10. 1881. p. 54.

1550. CUPERE, PETER DE, van Ipre.

Described as "met Nicolais [Hill] de prentere." I, 208.

Can this have been Petrus Dathenus? He did come from Ypres, and had many names, among which are d'Athènes, Mountain, van Bergen. The last was like the Dutch name of Nicholas Hill—van den Berg. See below DATHENUS.

1559. CUTTIER, PHILIPPE.

Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company 27 Feb. Arber I, 100. He is described there as a Frenchman, journeyman with Thomas Purfoot.

1567. — [CUTTER], Precinct of Blackfriars, Farringdon Within, French, no denizen, in England 18 years. I, 360.

In 1567-8 there is an entry of receipt of iiijd. from phillippe Cuthyre for his fynce. Arber I, 367.

1571. CUTTIER (continued) [CUTTIER], bookbinder, denizen, and his wife, in England 20 years, in the said ward 8 years; one servant, French, and two children. I, 413.

1576. — — [CUTTER], St. Ann's, Blackfriars. II, 180.
- Also his servants John Vaultner (see WALTENELL), William Phoriell.
- In 1578, March 3, Christopher Page, apprenticed to James Goneld, was to serve 6 years with P. Cutier, but on Aug. 11 of that year was transferred to Lewis Seignor upon the same conditions. See Arber II, 83. Perhaps he left England about then.
1561. DALE, DIONISIUS, compactor librorum, sine liberis (Nomina Eccles. German.). I, 274.
- There is also a Dyoniisus Pael van Baten mentioned in the Register of the Church, 1561, p. 279, possibly the same person.
1562. D'ANVILLIER, ANTONIUS, Blackfriars, "fusor typorum"; French Church. I, 291.
1567. — — [DANVILLER], from the dominion of the King of France, made denizen 30 May, 1567. Denizations, p. 62.

His autograph appears in the Registers as hubert Dauuille.

1562. DARE, GAUTIER, Blackfriars, “typographus.” French Church.
I, 290, 291.
Galterus Derry was made Brother of the Stationers’ Company 15 Jan., 1560.
Arber I, 126.
See Schickler I, 115, note from the first Register of Threadneedle Street Church:
“17 Sept., 1560.
“Gaultier Dare, natif de Rouen, peintre, désire être admis à la Discipline de l’Église et a été interrogé de sa foi, à quoi a répondu bien simplement.”

DATHENUS, PETRUS.

Baron de Schickler (I, 178, note) says that this man, who was afterwards minister at Heidelberg, had been “bookseller” at London under Edward VI, and had also preached there. In the Specimen historico-theologicum Petri Datheni vitam exhibens, quod examini submitet Hubertus ter Haar . . . (8°. Utrecht, 1858) we learn that Dathenus seems to have entered the Carmelite monastery at Ypres when about the age of 18 or 19, but to have left on account of his reformed ideas. See note under CUPERE above. There was a Peter Mouton in St. Katherine’s next the Tower in 1549 (R. of A. I, 155), appearing again as Mountayne in Lynseys Rentes, in the same ward, in 1551 (I, 219), in both cases valued at xx s. Dathenus’ real name was probably van Bergen: he called himself Montanus when he practised physic at Stade and other places in 1585 onwards. See Biographie Universelle, 1852, Vol. X.

DAY, JOHN, St. Anne and St. Agnes, Aldersgate Ward.

1549. — Gysberd Geyson, John Hollinder, Henrye Fleteman, Mychell
van Lendon, his servants.
I, 173.

Church Reg.
I, 205.

1564. DAY (continued). John Scot and Roman Niamores (Maynmour), with John Day. I, 315.
1571. — Romaine Maynmore (q.v.), printer, St. Bride's, Farringdon
Without, Day's servant. II, 2.
1576. — Gabriel Guyett in Mr. Daye's house (St. Ann's, Aldersgate).
II, 186.
1571. DEISE, ANTHONY, printer, servant to Reynold Wolf, q.v.
In Liggeren . . . der Antwerpsche Sint Lucasgilde, under date 1572 (Vol. I, p. 248), appears an Antony van Dist, drucker, who is perhaps identical with this man, who was born in Antwerp, and whose name is found in the Returns of Aliens only once, in 1571. In the Æcclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels, Vol. I), occurs a Latin letter (No. 144) from Abr. Ortelius, Antwerp, to Jacob Colius, his nephew, at London, 9 Jan., 1586, in which he says: "There is here the widow of Anthony Diesthius, who would be glad to know through you how her brother Gabriel Gayot fares among you, as she has not heard anything of him for nearly three years past. She thinks you know him . . . He is a 'typoglaphus (lettersteker vulgò).'"

DELANDERS, ROGER, Little St. Bartholomew's, Farringdon Without.

1541. — [DE LAUNE], valued at xx s. I, 58.
With Nicolas Grote and Rychard Forture, apparently both his servants.
1544. — [DALAVER], valued at v li. I, 95.
Was made Brother of the Stationers' Company 25 Oct., 1561. Arber I, 186.
1547. — [. . . DE LAUDERES], Frenchman, "in goodes x li." I, 132.
1549. — [DE LAUNDERS], valued at xx li. I, 184.
Also Rychard Forteine valued at xls., and Gyles G 1 (sic) "viij d" servants with the said Roger.
1564. DE LA RUE, JOHN.
Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company 21 Nov. Arber I, 279.
1567. (?) — JEHAN DE LE RUE. French Church Reg. I, 396.
- DEMETRIUS. See METEREN.
- DEPLANSHE. See PLANCHE.

1568. DERICKSON, JOHN.

[DERYCKSON] Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 8 Feb. (Arber I, 365.) There are three denizations of men of this name, two of which are in 1562. There is also, in 1567, a "John Direckesonne, Bridge Without Ward, Dutch, denizen, here 18 years" (R. of A. I., 343), but the name is too common for any identification at present.

1566. DESSERANS, JOHN, from the dominion of the King of France.

Letters of denization, 26 April. Denizations, p. 77.

1576. — [DESERRON], servant to Robert Cambier, St. Anne's, Blackfriars. II, 181.

Desserans was associated with Peter Bonneval, and also with Vautrollier, according to Rooses. (See his Plantin, p. 253.) Plantin got Desserans and Vautrollier to take up an agency for him in London in 1567; he promised Desserans 16 $\frac{2}{3}$ per cent. The arrangement only lasted for about a year. Cambier also had business with Plantin. It is possible that John de Sheron (q.v.), servant to Thomas Hacket in 1564, may be this man.

DETTTER, MARTIN, St. Mary Magdalene, Baynard Castle Ward.

1541. — goods valued at xv li. I, 59.

1544. — goods valued at v li. I, 89.

Also Gyles Ego, his servant. I, 90. See Ego.

1547. — [DETTGER], St. Faith's and St. Swithun's Parishes (same ward), valued at v li. I, 136.

1549. — St. Mary Magdalene, valued at iiij li. I, 166.

See Duff's Century of the English Book Trade, Dature, p. 37.

1561. DEVALL, ROBERT.

Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company 6 Dec. Arber I, 186.

1562. — [DU UAL], "S. Bartholomaei" (St. Bartholomew's, Farringdon Without Ward), in the List of the French Church. I, 292.

He does not appear in the 1559 or 1564 Lists of the Aliens in Farringdon Ward.

Devalt does not appear as connected with printing; his factor was Brother of the Stationers' Company, but may, of course, have been of some other trade.

1549. DEVELL, THOMAS, Englishman. Doctour Adrian, straunger, dwelling within Thomas Devell, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within.

I, 159.

Thomas Devell is mentioned in the 1557 Charter. He was not an alien, but does not even appear in the English part of the Subsidy List.

DIEST, ANTHONY VAN. See DEISE.

DOESBORCH, JAN VAN.

- 1524 (?)— Under Parochia Sancti Martini in Campis occurs the entry:
“De Johanne van Dwysborow, extraneo, pro xl s. per annum. ijs.”

I, 7.

Is it possible that the Parson of Kalenborowe which Mr. Proctor, in his monograph on this printer (p. 34), placed after 1520, and which he says has ornaments that occur in no other of Doesborch's books yet known, might have been printed by him over here, with ornaments borrowed in England for a change? Against the probability of the above entry referring to the printer must be set the entries of a John Dewysbury, from Dewysbury in the Duchy of Cleves, shoemaker, made denizen 1529 (Denizations, p. 79): “Jan Glaesmaker van Duisberch int Cleuen in 1550 (I, 206), and John van Dowsborowe servant with Harry Garretson in King's Hospital, 1551 (I, 232).”

1550. DRIESCH, HENDRYCK, van Antwerpen, in den Witten baer.

Dutch Church Reg.

I, 204.

1551. ——— ——— I, 212.

There is a Heynderick Dries, boeckbinder, in the Liggeren der Antwerpsche Sint Lucasgilde under date 1535. The White Bear in Botolph Lane, Billingsgate, was John Mayler's shop (see Duff's Century, p. 102). Possibly this may be the house in which Driesch dwelt.

DUBLE, HUBARD. See DANVILLIER.

DUPAYS. See PUYs.

1549. DUXWELL, THOMAS, Englishman.

In a note on Devell incidental mention is made of Thomas Denxell as occurring* among the English names in St. Faith's, Farringdon Within. I, 159.

1571. EAST, THOMAS, his servant Richard Schilders, q.v.

1571 (?). EERLEY, RICHARD, English (?), compositor, who worked in the same house with Jan Janssen for seven years (for Jugge?). See JOHNSON, JOHN.

1544. EGO, GYLES, St. Mary Magdalene, Castle baynard Ward, servant with Martin Detter. I, 90.

1544. — [EGOUTE], letters of denization 11 July. Denizations, p. 87.

1550. ERVE, EGIDIUS VAN DER, "Senior," in the Dutch Church Register. I, 202.

Also called Gillis vander Herue, "met zyn vrouwe Anna," among the Diaconi, on the same page.

1551. — Gillis vander Herue, met Anna. Dutch Church Reg. I, 212.

Gillis van Erven, alias Aegidius Aervius, Gellius Ctematius, and perhaps Collinus Volckwinner, after having been in England a short time, fled from Queen Mary, together with John à Lasco, Myerdman, and others. See Ostfriesisches Monatsblatt VI, 11, and VII, 1.

During their wanderings in search of a resting-place, which was by no means easy to find, seven of them were called before the Council of Copenhagen, in December, 1553, to ascertain their views on Eucharistic matters. Gillis van der Erven was one of these.

In 1554 at last the fugitives found a home in Emden, where they were soon active in printing.

In the Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum, ed. Hessels, are many references to this printer during his residence at Emden. Godfrey van Wingen, writing to John Utenhove in 1557 (Vol. II, No. 21), says that Aervius has begged him to take in hand the Liesveldt Bible and collate it with those of Zürich and Luther, in order to supersede the poor version printed by Gheijlliaert, and Aervius has also threatened to cease printing unless that were soon done. He also says that Aervius has sustained a great loss of help in the death of Nicolas (van Oldenburch?), and that, inclining more to their improvements in style, he has adopted Du instead of the obsolete Ghy in a reprint of the London Psalms (Utenhove's). For the consequences of his favouring the improved style in the New Testament, see below, under 1556.

The following is a list of some books printed by G. van der Erve:

1552. Een claer bewijs van het recht ghebruyck des Nachtaels Christi ende wat men van de misse houden sal, door Marten Mikron. Lond., 1552. 8°.

Kuyper's A Lasco, I, lxxviii. A copy in the Utrecht Library, Theol. Octav. N. 704. Possibly printed by Erve.

- De cleyne Catechismus oft kinderleere, der Duytsche Ghemeynthe, die te Londen is, ghemaect doer Maertē Microen. 8 Octobris, 1552.

Kuyper (loc. cit.) suggests that this also may have been printed by Erve, and notes a copy in the Biblioth. Teleiobapt. at Amsterdam, Theol. VI, c. 336.

1554. De Christlicke Ordinancien der Nederlantscher Ghemeynten Christi . . . te Londen . . . Doer Marten Microen . . . Ghedruckt buyten Londen, doer Collinus Volckwinners. Anno 1554. 8°. From Kuyper's A Lasco, loc. cit.

Isaac Le Long gives this as a pseudonym of Ctematius. A copy was said by Kuyper to be in the possession of Mr. Fred. Muller; but in Muller's Catalogue, "Troubles Religieux," etc., Oct., 1904, appears a copy of the book published at Antwerp by J. Troyens, woonende op de Catte-Veste, in den tennen Pot, 1582, with colophon "Ghedruckt tot Delft, by Cornelius Jansz, woonende by de Vischmerckt, in de vette hinne. Anno MDLXXXII. Eerst ghedruckt buyten Londen, door Collinus Volckwinner Anno 1554." Buyten, of course, means "without," and the 1554 book must not therefore be described as London printed. Perhaps the book No. 296 in the Catalogue "Troubles Religieux," etc., because of its similar imprint, may be noted here. It is "W. Musculus, predicant tot Berent in Svitserlant, Den eersten Psalm Davids, seer fijn ende Christelick wtgheleit," with colophon: "Ghedruickt bwten Lonnen by Theophilum Brugensens 1554." 12°. It is described as a work printed by the Netherlands protestant refugees in London. If the Volckwinner is Erve's, perhaps this may be also.

1555. De cleyne Catechismus . . . doer M. Microen. From Kuyper, loc. cit.

Also mentioned in the article on A. van Haemstede by J. ab Utrecht Dresselhuis, in Archief voor Kerk. Geschied. VI. Deel. Leiden, 1835. p. 83.

1556. Toute la forme & maniere du Ministere Ecclesiastique, en l'Eglise des estrangers, dressee a Londres en Angleterre, par le Prince tresfidele dudit pays, le Roy Edouard .vi. de ce nom: L'an apres l'incarnation de Christ. 1550. avec le privilege de sa Maiesté a la fin du liure. With regard to the Catechism printed by Hill in 1553, the title is: "De catechismus oft kinderleere, die men te Londen, in de Duytsche ghemeynte, is gebruyckende.—Psal. 119, . . . Gedruet tot Londen, by Nycolas van den Berghe. anno 1553." There is a copy of this in the Stadtbibliothek of Mainz, the only one now known. Meiners (Oostvrieschlandts Kerkelyke Gesch. Groningen, 1738. I, 332.) seems to mention two copies recorded in his day. He says that John Utenhove translated the great "Oostvriescher Catechismus" into the Netherlands dialect for the use of the London church, and had it printed by Nicolaus van den Berge in 1553, and that J. J. Harkenroht possessed a copy. Then he says that on the title of a copy of Ctematius's edition of 1558 he found inscribed the information that the first edition was printed at London by Nycolas van den Berge, Anno 1553, and that Engelke Pottebakker possessed such a copy.

It may be also noted that in Foxe's Martyrs, 4th ed., edited by J. Pratt, Vol. VIII, p. 759, are described two varying issues of Cranmer's Catechismus (the translation of Justus Jonas's book), one of which having "Gualterus Lynne excudebat 1548" on the title, has also colophon "Imprynted at London in S. Jhones-strete by Nycolas Hyll for Gwalter Lynne, dwelling on Somers Kaye by Byllyng's gate," while the other omits the words "by Nycolas Hill."

In the Edictum de librorum prohibitorum catalogo observando (Antwerp, 1570) is mentioned "Een cort begrype ende slot van der gansser heyliger scriftuieren des ouden ende nieuwe testamente, gedruckt te Londen by Niclaes van Berghen." (See Bergman's Imprimeurs Belges à l'étranger. Gand, 1897.)

(See under STELL below.) An Aert van Guylick is mentioned in the list of those persecuted for religion who frequented the various London churches in 1568. (R. of A., I, 385.)

1576. — [HUGHES], Green’s Rents, St. Bride’s, Farringdon Without. II, 170.
- Lewis Senior had moved to Fleet Yard at this time, and Hue in this entry is only fined per poll “iiijd.” It is, therefore, probable that he was still Senior’s servant.
- John Howe was admitted Brother of the Stationers’ Company, 16 Mar., 1562 (Arber I, 187), and Jean Hue, relieur, is reported to have come in 1562 according to the Search for Strangers, S. P. Dom. Eliz., 1571.

1576. — St. Sepulchre's, Old Bailey Quarter, Goose Alley, poll iiii^d. II, 172.

It seems that these entries refer to one man because of a letter noted in Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels, Vol. III, No. 694). Jan Janssen, compositor, writing from Dordrecht, 25 Feb., 1581, to the Dutch Church in London, requests them to send an account of his wife's misbehaviour to Dordrecht. He tells them to inquire of Hans Stel, bookseller, at "Duc plaetse" (Duke's place, in the liberty of Christchurch), also of Jacob Wolfaert, compositor, Richard Watkins, bookseller, in Paul's Churchyard, Thomas Dauson, printer, and the following men of his own craft, who all worked together with him in one house for seven years: Richard Hudson, Robert Leeuwes, Tomas Romney, Richarde Reed, Richard Eerley: if this were not enough they were to inquire in the place where he had resided, without Newgate, in Secole lane, in Christopher Alley. This corresponds with the entry above in which he is called stationer. It is noteworthy that Juggle, whose address was the Bible at the North door of Paul's, from about 1547 to about 1573, after that date gave the address "by Newgate Market next to Christ Church" until 1576. Johnson may therefore have been with him in both places. In another letter of the same collection (III, No. 696), H. de Corput of Dordrecht, writing to Godfrey Wingius at London, 26 Feb., 1581, speaks of "Jan Janssen lettersetter woonende by Peter Verhagen, boeckdrucker," so that was Johnson's address in that city. They had probably been acquainted in London, as Peter Verhagen was there 1571-6, the same period as Johnson.

JONES, RICHARD, Farringdon Without, stationer, Englishman.

- 1581-3. Salomon de Brow his servant. II, 219, 301.
 A Richard Jones was made Brother of the Stationers' Company, 7 Aug., 1564. Arber I, 278. However the above is called Englishman.
 In 1565 a Richard Jones had a shop at the N.W. door of Paul's; in 1566 he dwelt at the Spread Eagle in the upper end of Fleet Lane; in 1576 he dwelt over against St. Sepulchre's church without Newgate; in 1579 had a shop on Snow Hill over against that church, and in 1581 was at the Rose and Crown in Holborn over against the Falcon near Holborn Bridge without Newgate.

JUGGE, RICHARD, printer.

And it is reported he departed this land and wente over the sea five yeres agoe and is not yet returned." II, 308.
 Solomon Kirkner was admitted brother 4 Aug., 1577, and was to pay as above, and Henry Bynneman to stop it out of his wages. See Arber II, 675.
 May we connect him with Salomon Kerknett, compositor, 1576-7, who was in Bassandyne's employ, being brought by him from Magdeburg? See Aldis, List of Books printed in Scotland before 1700, p. 115.

1549 (?) LAMBERT, LESON.

1565. — [LANBERT], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 12 March, 1565. Arber I, 280.
 1565. — [LEZINUS LAMBERT], from the dominion of the King of France. Letters of denization 8 Nov., 1565. Denizations, p. 144.
 Arber also has note "Recevyd of lesyng lamberde for his fyne ijs. vjd." (I, 316, 1565-6), and "Rec^d of John blonde for his order whan he was hyred with lesyng for a quarter of a yere iiij d." (I, 318, 1565.)

The entries in the Returns of Aliens referring to Lambert Loy may perhaps belong to the above. In 1549 he is in St. Olave's, Southwark, valued at xls. (I, 143), in 1551 iij li. (I, 225), in 1552 xxs. (I, 236), and in 1567 is in Portsoken Ward, described as a Dutch denizen, having been here 23 years.

See Duff's Century, p. 91, where he is said to have lived in St. Andrew's, Holborn, in one of Berthelet's houses. There is no entry in the R. of A. which will apply to him, unless it be the Peter Graunt in Shoe Lane, 1549, servant to a Johan Curtyn (I, 181), who is called Peter Lucy, however, in 1544 (I, 95); and Shoe Lane was in St. Bride's.

Gualterus de Lenns occurs in the Literary Remains of Edward VI (p. cccxvi) as having been rewarded by that prince in the first year of his reign. Two books were dedicated to him by Lynn.

Wouter van Lin occurs as a publisher at Antwerp, 1533-4, issuing an edition of Gassar's Cronycke in each year, and Erasmus's Bereydinghe tot der doot in 1534. See W. Nijhoff's Bibliographie de la typogr. néerlandaise, Nos. 416, 526, 1121. Lin's address at Antwerp was "op die Lombaerde veste naest dye Gulde hant."

In 1549 he was servant to Hill, in St. John's Street, Clerkenwell.

Urbanus van Cuelen in 1550 is said to be in Smithfield, but was in Emden in 1557.

There is no likelihood of his having come back again to England, so that Urban Lynyng and Urbanus van Cuelen do not seem to be identical.

1571. LYVEDALLE, DERICK, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, stationer, born in Flanders, in England 24 years, in the said Ward 7 years.

The date of the letters is June-July, 1614. See Overall's Index to the Remembrancia, p. 160, No. III, 163, 166.
In Renialm's will (Plomer's Wills, p. 35), 1600, he leaves ten pounds to an Adrian Marvie lately come into his service, provided he stay with his wife. No trace of him is yet forthcoming in the R. of A.

The number of "Douch" in this ward, 121, given at the end, must include these three Englishmen, two of whom had been royal printers since 1558. There is surely some mistake in the entry.

Rumold Mercator was the son of the great Gerard Mercator of "Projection" fame, and his native place was Duysburg. In the Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels, Vol. I), are three letters referring to him. One (No. 99) from his father Gerard to Ortelius, 12 Dec., 1580, mentioning that Ortelius had sent him some time before by Rumold some information about Drake's expedition; a second (No. 109) from Arnold Freijttagh, asking Ortelius to salute for him Rumold Mercator and others; and a third (No. 287), a letter from Rumold, Duysburg, 26 Mar., 1596, saying that he had promised to reply to Ortelius immediately after his return home from Frankfurt fair, and even to send the MS. of Guilielmus Tripolitanus and a description of the river Ana, if he could find. But he was so pushed with domestic affairs that he had only just had time to look through his father's library. (Gerard died 2 Dec., 1594.) Christopher Plantin had business with Rumold between 1559-89. See Roses' Plantin, p. 408.

- One excuse for this long entry is the following book which Emanuel van Meteren published :
- E. v. Meteren. Commentarien ofte memorien van den Nederlandtschen Staet, handel, oorloghen ende gheschiedenissen van onsen tyden, etc. Mede vervattende eenige haerder ghebuerer handlinghen. Ghedruckt op Schotlandt buyten Danswijck, by Hermes van Loven. (At end:) Tot Londen, voor Emanuel van Meteren, 1609. Frontispiece, map and portraits engraved on wood by van Sichem. (Folio. The description is taken from Muller's Sale Catalogue, Troubles Religieux, etc. Oct., 1904. No. 284.)
- From the letters in Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels) we obtain further information with regard to this man. On 8 April, 1556 (Vol. I, No. 6), Ortelius sends maps to him, and addresses him as "Immanuel van Metheren dienaer van Sebastian danckaerts op somers kaij." This was his abode for many years. In 1609 (III, No. 1,695) we have his age, about 74, and the following facts: He was brought to England anno 1550, in Edward VI's days, by his father (James, see above), a furtherer of the reformed religion, "as he that caused the first bybel at his costes bee Inglished bij Mr. Mijles Coverdal in Antwerp, the wiche his father with Mr. Eduard Withchurche printed bothe in Paris and London, be wiche meanes here wel acquainted, was one of the suytters for the erection of a Dutche Church at the Augustyn Fryars, and made this deponent a member of the same anno 1552." Emanuel was excluded from the Church from the beginning of the Hamstede troubles until 1 July, 1561 (III, No. 54, note). He seems to have been almost agent for Ortelius in England, as Richard Mulcaster ordering books from Antwerp promises Ortelius that he will pay Meteren (I, No. 104), and on a capture of Philip II's indulgences, illustrated missals, etc., Meteren promised to try and obtain some for Ortelius, 1592 (I, No. 225). Meteren died 8 April, 1612.

METEREN—MIERDMAN.

Mierdman printed in Antwerp from before 1540 to 1545, and in London 1550 to 1552, afterwards at Emden.

The following is a contribution to a list of his books :

1543. El nveo testamento De nuestro Redemptor y Salvador Jesu Christo, traduzido de Griego en lengua Castellana, por Francisco de Enzinas, dedicado a la Caesarea Magestad En Anberes en casa de Esteban Meerdmanno, en el anno de MDXLIII. The colophon gives 25 Oct., 1543, as the date of completion.

Enzinas (or Dryander as he is best known) was imprisoned for this book on 13 Dec., 1543. Both printing and sale were stopped by the Emperor, Charles V, although some of the Franciscan Order had pronounced it harmless. See Wiffen's Bibliotheca, ed. by Boehmer.

In his Mémoires (ed. by Campan, Vol. I, p. lxxix, a volume of the Collection de Mémoires relatifs à l'histoire de Belgique, Brussels, 1862), Enzinas gives some details of conversation with Mierdman on the printing of this work. Mierdman was glad to print that which would conduce to the public good and that of the Church rather than to seek gain or promote strife; and in answer to the question whether it could be printed without license, he said that it was surely lawful to print the sacred writings without consent or restraint of any man, and adduced the fact that no laws of the emperor had ever forbidden this. He confirmed it by the fact that the Testament had been printed in that same city (Antwerp) by himself or others in all the languages of Europe. "Then said I: set up the press, and get everything ready. I will take the responsibility of the translation, and you shall risk the issuing of it; and to secure you before our people from any suspicion of fraud I will bear the expense of printing." But although the translation passed, and the title-page—after an alteration for which the sheet was reprinted—yet the dedication to Melanchthon brought down on the translator the displeasure of Pierre de Soto, the Emperor's confessor, and so Enzinas went to prison. In some way Matthew Cron (or Crom) had been mentioned as the printer of this work, and as he had already printed other prohibited books, that was one reason why this was looked on with disfavour. It is curious that they both occur in the next mentioned:

1543. Der sieckentrost. Onderwijsinghe, om ghewillichlijck te sterven. Troostinghe, om den siecken totten rechten gheloove ende betrouwen in Christo te onderwijsen. PYNSON, RICHARD.

1513. — from Normandy, Letters of denization 30 July. Denizations, p. 200.

This is probably the son of the famous printer who was said in the latter's will, Nov., 1529, to be lately dead (Arber II, 7). He was also said to have left a daughter Joan, who married in 1537 (see Duff's Century, p. 127). There was a Jane Pynsen in the Parish of St. Thomas' Hospital, Southwark, in 1559, according to the Returns of Aliens (I, 267), who, however, might be a relation of Gyllam Pynson in the same parish in 1552 (I, 244), who would very likely be the "salt petre maker" born in Normandy (like Richard above, and a Fabian Pynson), who took out letters of denization July, 1544 (Denizations, p. 200).

QUAPLET, JAMES. See COIPLETT.

1561. RABAT, ANTHONIUS.

There is an "Anthenius Rabbat" given in the Dutch Church Register (I, 278), who may be the Rabat given in the list of Norwich printers in the Addenda to Mr. Allnut's English Provincial Presses (Bibliographica, Part 12, p. 481). He went to Norwich in 1567.

RAYNALD, THOMAS. See BERNAERDT, DAVID.

1571 (?) REED, RICHARDE, compositor, who worked in the same house with Jan Janssen for 7 years (for Jugge?). See JOHNSON, JOHN. In Richard Jugge's will (1577) this Richard Reade is mentioned as one of his apprentices (Flomer's Wills, p. 24). He was made free 18 Jan., 1580, and is found printing and publishing till 1603. See Arber V, p. 261.

RENIALMI, ASCANIUS DE, St. Anne's, Blackfriars, Farringdon Within.

1578. — [REMALINE], from the dominion of the Doge of Venice.

Letters of denization 12 Dec., 1578. Denizations, p. 75.

1580. — [ASCANIUS DENIELL alias RENIALME], admitted a Brother of the Company 27 June, 1580, "jejunium fecit." Arber II, p. 682.

1582. — [REYNOLDE], valued at x li. II, 252.

— — [REYNALDO], Nicholas de Brewen, his servant. II, 253.

1582-3. — [RENIALME], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company [1580] gratis; a free denizen in Blackfriars. II, 309.

1583. — [RENIALMI], bookseller, born in Venice, and his wife, came to England to see the country, and are of French Church. Denizen 4 years. Nicholas de Brome his servant, born in Germany, and 1 child born in England. II, 354.

1585. — Same information as 1583. See Denizations, p. 75.

1594. RENIALMI (continued). The wife of Ascanius, and Nicolas de Bruyne her servant. Dutch Church Reg. II, 462.
1599. — [RENIALME], valuation xv li., and Elizabeth his wife, per poll viij d. III, 50.

Renialmi was a witness to Vautrollier's will, and his own will is given in Plomer's Wills, p. 35. There it transpires that he was brother-in-law to Francis Bonier (or Bover, q.v.), and that he had a servant, Adrian Marvie, who may perhaps be the man noted under Marius above. He died early in 1600.

Rooses states that Plantin dealt with him (Plantin, p. 408). He is mentioned in the Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum, Vol. I (ed. Hessels), in several places: Ortelius, writing from Antwerp to Em. Demetrius in London, Nov., 1586, says that there are some books printed at Frankfort which he thinks will be useful to him, but he expects that he can see them all at Ascanius's (No. 148). In 1592 Petrus Verheila, in London, thanks Ortelius for the map of ancient Germany received through the bookseller Ascanius (No. 294), while Jacob Cool, writing from London, tells Ortelius he has received a parcel from him through the same source, with enclosures for his brother and Demetrius. Christopher Wurtzung's Praxis medicinae universalis, 1598, was licensed to George Bishop and Ascanius. (See Arber III, 84, who, however, has confused him with Yetsweirt.)

It might seem that he was in some way connected with the great Bomberg family, the Venice printers, as Cornelis van Bomberghen is said to be the son of Antoni van Bomberghen and Elizabeth de Renialme, who fled from Antwerp to Venice in 1567 (Rooses' Plantin, p. 96).

It was to Ascanius de Renialme, merchant bookseller, that Archbishop Whitgift granted a licence to bring into this realm from the parts beyond the seas some few copies of every such sorts of books, written by such as are addicted to the errors of popery, but wanted by the learned though not fit for the general reader; this was in 1586. See Herbert's Ames, III, 1676. Also in 1597-8 there is a letter from the Privy Council to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen asking for Renialme's freedom, in order that the Stationers may be able to make him free of their Company. It is stated there that his trade hurts no one else's. See Acts of Privy Council, 1597-8, p. 290.

There are books printed at Frankfort by the "haeredes Ascanii de Rinalme" (see Hazlitt, I, 199, for Hall's Mundus Alter et Idem, 1605).

REYNES, JOHN, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within.

1523. — stationer and denizen, valuation xl li. iiij s. iiij d. I, 2.
1541. — free denizen, valuation C li.; and James Fox, his servant. Reynes left 20s. to "Jamys my Dutchman." I, 67.
1544. — stranger, denizen, valuation lxxx li.; and James Foxe, his servant, stranger, valuation xl s. I, 93.

There is a denization of a John Reynes, from the town of "Wagenyng" in Gueldres, 7 June, 1510 (see Denizations, p. 205, where he is identified with a person who supplied cloth and cotton at the funeral of Sir Thomas Lovell in 1524). There is a note in Foxe's Martyrs, 4th edition, by J. Pratt, Vol. V, p. 396, which says that in 1539 Friar Bartley, after the suppression of religious houses, was espied by Lord Cromwell in Rheines's shop in St. Paul's Churchyard in his cord still, and was promised a hanging unless he changed his attire. Reynes's will was proved in 1544, and is given in Plomer's Wills, p. 6.

RICHARD, BENET, Aldersgate Ward.

1566. — [BENETT RYCHARDES], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 8 Jan. Arber I, 318.
1567. — [BENETT RICHARD], French, here three years, not denizen. I, 329.
1570. — [BENEDICT RICARDE], from the dominion of the King of France. Letters of denization, 7 Nov., 1570. Denizations, p. 205.
1571. — [BENETT RICARDE], denizen. I, 435.
1571. — St. Martin's le Grand, Dutchman, and his wife, Dutchwoman, in England these 7 years, dwelt as servants; of no church. II, 47.
1576. — [RICARD], St. Ann's. II, 186.
1582. — [RICHERD], St. Botolph without Aldersgate, bookbinder, valued at iiij li. II, 230.
- 1582-3. — [RICHARD], denizen, stationer, and Margaret his wife, French Church. II, 284.
- In 1583 a Bennet Richardes, silkweaver, is mentioned in Aldersgate Ward (II, 334), and in 1585 a — Richard as servant to Blome in St. Martin's le Grand (II, 390). These may be the same (?).

ROCHEFORTH, HENRY.

1557. — [STARKERFELSER alias RUPIUS], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 22 Feb. Arber I, 43.
1559. — St. Giles in the Field, Clerkenwell, valuation xx s. I, 256.
- Henry Rocheforthe, Pawll Rochforth, sonnes of Henry. I, 256.
- This Pawll is perhaps the Poll Rotteförde mentioned below.
- 1564.(?) — [HENRY ROCHFORD], physician, valuation xx li. I, 303; also Rochforth, St. Leonard's, Aldersgate. I, 314.
- 1567.(?) — Farringdon Within, Henry Rotchefordes servante. I, 359.
- There was one of this name author of an Almanack and Prognostication which was printed in 1560 by Owen Rogers (see Arber I, 152; Hazlitt II, 520, III, 212).

He appears as publisher 1562-4 (see Arber I, 215, 263, 265; Hazlitt II, 477, 520). His name is also spelt Rogeford. There does not seem any reason to doubt that Starkerfelser is the German equivalent of Rocheforte.

1571.(?) ROMNEY, THOMAS, compositor, who worked in the same house with Jan Janssen for 7 years (for Jugge?). See JOHNSON, John.

1571. ROTTEFORDE, POLL, Grenes Rentes and the Wharfe, Farringdon Without, Douche, no denyzon, of occupacion founder of lettres for printers, hathe bene in Englande xiiij yeares, and in this warde one yere. I, 421.

It will be noticed that the 14 years agree exactly with the time (1557) when Henry Starkerfelser, or Rocheforth, was admitted Brother. It is suggested above that the Pawl of 1559 may be this typefounder. There is also a son of Poll Rotteforde mentioned, John a childe, in this roll.

1541. ROWE, JOHN, servant to Herry Harman, the Birckmans' factor. I, 67.

This is perhaps the French bookbinder who got into trouble for dispersing English New Testaments sold him by Christopher, a Dutchman of Antwerp, in 1531. See Foxe's Martyrs, 4th ed. by J. Pratt, Vol. V, p. 37. There is a letter, written in London, 24 Aug., 1555, by a John Rowe (Harl. MSS., No. 353, fol. 143), referred to in Foxe, Vol. VI, p. 768. There also occurs once among the denizens a "Rowe, alias Symond, John, from the Dominion of the King of France, 30 Mar., 1573" (Denizations, p. 210), who seems the same with John Simond, bookbinder, below; but Simond only came over about 1566, so that it will not be the same man as Rowe above. See Duff's Century, p. 139.

ROWSE, JOHN. See LE ROUX.

ROYE, CYBRYKE VAN, St. Botolph, Billingsgate.

1549. — [SEBRYGHT VAN ROY], factour for Nycolas Devalt of Anwarpe, valued at "1 li." and assessed at v li. I, 161.

He was admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company before 1556, and about Feb. of that year subscribed viijd. to the collection for Bridewell. Arber, I, 48.

1564. — [SIBRICK VAN ROYE], St. Leonard, Aldersgate Ward, valued at xx s., assessed ij s. I, 313.

RUPIUS. See ROCHEFORTH, HENRY.

RUREMUND, HANS VAN.

1535. — Holibusche, alias Holybusche (John), of London, stationer, otherwise bokebynder, born in Ruremund', under the obedience of the Emperor. Letters of denization, 24 Feb., 1535. Denizations, p. 125.

1561. RUREMUND (continued), Bartholomeus van Bossuyts, by Hans van Rumunde. Dutch Church Reg. I, 278.
Bossuyts occurs again as Bartholomeus van Bowsick in 1576, in the precinct of Christchurch, within the Duke's palace (II, 164).
1571. — [HULSBUSCH], Dutchman, denizen in Tower Ward, and Mechtilde, his wife. I, 457.
An entry on I, 458 (Men servants, strangers, dwelling with the denizens), 1571, Tower Ward, "John Hulbusch scrivener borne in Gelderland, hath bene in England 7 weekes" perhaps refers to the son mentioned below.
- — [HURLSBUSH], St. Catharine's by the Tower, of Gelderland, denizen: Mechetild of Luke his wife: John Hurlsbush his son of the same, no denizen. II, 141.
- 1582 (?) — [HOLLIBUSHE], St. Andrew Hubbard's, Billingsgate, Lambert and John Hollibushe, under John Olyff. II, 240.
Possibly this entry refers also to the son. In one of 1530, in the Liggeren der Antwerpsche Sint Lucasgilde, I, 116, Hansken van Remunde geleert by Jacob Orbach, will be a nephew, the son of Christopher.
- 1585 (?) — [HOLBUSCKE], St. Andrew's, Botolph Lane. Dutch Church Reg. II, 380.
See Duff's Century, p. 141. A Hans van Remonde appears among the contributors to the cost of a company of Dutch soldiers under Norris and Drake, 7 Mar., 1589. See Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels), Vol. III, No. 1, 142.

1567. — [SALTE], Dutch denizen, in England 20 years. I, 353.
1571. — [SAULT], bookbinder, denizen, born in "Luke," in this ward 10 years. I, 419.

1571. SALT, HENRY (continued), printer, here about 30 years, denizen, parish church. II, 29.

1576. — [SALT], in the house of Thomas Jones, Englishman, per poll, iiij d. II, 170.

Possibly the same man as Henry Soull, with Grafton in 1549.

SASSEN, ANDREAS, Farringdon Within Ward.

1564. — [SARSEN], St. Faith's Parish, Douchman, pole iiij d. I, 303.

1567. — Dutchman, no denizen, servant. I, 358.

Christopher Plantin had transactions with André Sassenius, of Louvain, somewhere between 1559 and 1589. See Rooses' Christophe Plantin, p. 408. The district in which Sassen lived, St. Faith's, is in favour of his being connected with the book trade.

SCAPULYS, PHILIP, St. Gregory's Parish, Castle Baynard Ward.

1541 (?) — [SPANSPONS], valued at vij li. I, 59.

1544. — [SCAPILIPYS], valued at xij li. I, 89.

He had one prentysse, and Jacobus Shyres, seruaunt, assessed on xls.

1550. — [SCAPLES], St. Clement's, assessed on x li. I, 193.

With John Vadaugh, servant, assessed on xls., and John Merlyn, "prentes," viij d.

Scapulys became Brother of the Stationers' Company before 1556, subscribing vj d. to the collection for Bridewell about Feb. of that year. Arber I, 48. According to his will in 1590, he was born in Trier, and had moved from London to Bristol. See Duff's Century, p. 143.

SCHILDERS, RICHARD.

1568. — [SHELLDER], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 3 May, Arber I, 366.

1569. SCHILDERS (continued) [PAINTRE], French Church Reg. I, 398.
1571. — [SKYLDERS], St. Michael's Bassieshaw Ward, and Trokyn, his wife, both born at Engye (Angers), in Hennego (Anjou), sojourners with John Dewye, householder, came to England "at Lent last was iij yeres, and lyveth as servaunte by pryntinge with Thomas East stacyoner; and she cam over at Easter last past was iij yeres;" for religion. French Church. II, 36.
1576. — [SKYLDER alias PAINTER], St. Martin's, Farringdon Without, in the house of Jeffry Ponde, Englishman; valuation xx s. II, 171.

This printer also called himself Pittore in 1607 on Florio's Historia de la morte de Signora Giovanna Graia ("Stampato appresso Richardo Pittore," see Hazlitt, II, 694). The name Painter appears on one of his Middelburg books of 1582. In Arber II, 882, we learn that on the 24 Nov., 1578, R. Skilders "Dutchman" had a press and type, that he himself was a compositor, and was printing a book for Hans Stell, who was also an alien. He was stopped and made to transfer the book to a member of the Stationers' Company, Thomas Dawson, for whom he worked for wages till it was complete. The book is suggested to be Philips van Marnix van Sant Aldegonde's Bee Hive of the Romish Church, translated by George Gilpin. Thomas Dawson, 1579, for Hans Stell (See Arber V, 111). The first Middelburg book of Schilders' known is Robert Brown's Life and Manners of Christians in 1582. He issued several editions of the Psalms in metre (English), and Marnix's Dutch translation in 1591, all at Middelburg. The most interesting of the books under his name, because probably printed in England, is the following:—Den Spieghel des Houwelicks, waer in door veel schoone ende ghenoechelycke redenen, ghelyckemissen ende gheboden, vertoocht ende gheleert wordt, hoe dat man ende wijf hen teghen elckanderen dragende een vraelaem, lieflick, ende gheluckich leven met elckanderen sullen leyden. Wi den Griekeschen Autheur Plutarchus, int Neduytsch (sic) overgheset. Ghedruct by Richard Schilders, 1575, 8^o., said to be in fine gothic characters. A copy was in the library (No. 670) of the Chev. Gust. van Havre, of Antwerp, sold by F. Muller & Cie., in Dec., 1905. It will be seen that the date of printing comes between the two last entries above, and there is no place of printing indicated on the title. Books from his press at Middelburg are recorded up to 1616, and an Abraham Schilders printed there in 1620 (see Hazlitt, III, 88).

1549. SCOLOKER, ANTHONY, called Englishman, St. Clement's in the Liberty of the Duchy of Lancaster. Hance Rycard, servant, stranger, dwelling with Anthony Scolyca. I, 151.
1564. SCOT, JOHN, servant with John Day, q.v.

John Skot was admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 7 Aug., 1564. Arber I, 278. May this not be the Skot of St. Andrew's and Edinburgh, who is “missing” from 1562 to 1568, in the former of which years he was imprisoned, for how long a time it is not known. See Dickson and Edmond, Annals of Scottish Printing, p. 150 seq.

- SHERES, JAMES.
1549. ——— [SHYRES], St. Clement's in the Liberty of the Duchy of Lancaster, servant to Philip Rapeles [Scapulys], valuation xls. I, 151.
1550. ——— [SHERES], Letters of denization, 29 Oct., 1550. Denizations, p. 218.
- 1556-7. ——— Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company before the Charter; see Arber I, 45, where he is fined in Apr., 1556 or 1557, for entertaining an apprentice and suffering him to spend money in his house, and conveying him through another man's house. Also about Feb., 1556, he subscribed viij d. to the collection for Bridewell.
1571. ——— [SHERES], St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, bookbinder, born in Antwerp, denizen, in this realm 38 years, and in the said ward 22 years. I, 411.
- [SHEIRES], came into this realm to his brother about 35 years past, denizen, parish church. II, 12.
On 1 Feb., 1574, the Corporation of London permitted James Sheres stranger and stationer to be given work within the city by Thomas Chapman draper, the "late restraynt" notwithstanding, provided that freemen have sufficient of the same work. See Arber II, 746, quoting from Letter Book X, fol. 16, Corporation Records.
1564. SHERON, JOHN DE, servant to Thomas Hacket, q.v.
Perhaps identical with John Sero, sealmaker, admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 5 Nov., 1555, and with John Desserans (q.v.). See Duff's Century, p. 146.
1544. SHOWYCHE, PAUL, servant with Philip Scapulys, q.v.

1571. SIMOND, JOHN, Precinct of the Blackfriars, bookbinder, and his wife, French, in England 3 years, in the said Ward one month, one child. I, 413.

— [SYMONDE], St. Martin's le Grand, Aldersgate Ward, Dutchman, bookbinder, and his wife, here 5 years, no church. II, 48.

Although the abode, nationality, and number of years are differently described, it seems hardly likely that these two entries refer to different bookbinders. There is a denization of a John Simon, from the dominion of the Duke of Gueldres, 20 June, 1571 (Denizations, p. 221) which may apply to this man. There is also one, from the dominion of the King of France, of John Symond, 11 Feb., 1573 (ib., 223), but the same person also appears 30 Mar., 1573, as John Rowe, alias Symond (p. 210).

1576. — [SYMONS], St. Bartholomew the Great, Farringdon Without. II, 172.

Wm. Kirkham, John Harrison the elder's apprentice, was put with Jhon Simon bookebynder for 6 years, 24 Aug., 1576. Arber II, 67.

1582. — [SYMONDES], St. Bartholomew the Great. II, 250.

- 1582-3. — [SIMONS], Farringdon Without, denizen, stationer, and Awdrrian his wife, French Church. II, 301.

1583. — French, bookbinder. II, 334.

1598. — [SYMONS], Beere Alley, St. Sepulchre's, Farringdon Without, per poll viij d. III, 16.

1600. — — Beere Alley, St. Sepulchre's, Farringdon Without, per poll viij d. III, 84

Again, in 1604, Ric. Bladon apprentice to Humfrey Hooper for 8 years, was put to serve his time with the bookbinder John Symons. Arber II, 282.

SINGLETON, HUGH.

1549. — Peter Chaunter, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, servant to Hugh Singleton. I, 159.

Singleton was at this date at the sign of St. Augustine, in St. Paul's Churchyard.

1560. — Zacharias Kempen van Andwerpen, boucbindere, met Zingelton, by Staelhof in griet Alderheleghe. Dutch Church Reg. I, 211.

Singleton had moved in 1552-3 to the Double Hood, Thames Street, over against the Steelyard.

1576. SINGLETON (continued), St. Martin's Ludgate, Farringdon Within, Hugh Shingleton, Englishman, in his house one Jasper a stranger.

II, 179.

His third shop was called the "Gilden Tun in Creed Lane near unto Lud Gate," where he remained from about 1570 to 1583. For Jasper see HOLLYARD (?).

SION, CHARLES.

1566. — Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company 13 June, . . . to serve Thomas Marshe for the next year. See Arber I, 319.

- 1567 (?) — [SHANNE], Farringdon Ward Without, French, no denizen, servant, here one year. I, 364.

Thomas Marshe dwelt in Fleet Street, near St. Dunstan's Church, which would be in Farringdon Ward Without, and this man is described as servant, while the Christian name Charles is extremely rare in these lists.

1544. SOLENCE, ANTONYE, Bassishaw Ward, servant with George Bysmere, English gentleman. I, 84.

Possibly the Anthony de Solempne who printed at Norwich, 1568–80, having gone there in 1567. The following note of some books issued by him may be useful to add to the articles in Bibliographica, II, 150, and III, 481:—

1568. Belijdenisse ende eenvoudige wtlegghinge des gheloofs, gemaect van de dienaers der Kercken Jesu Christi in Switserlant: te weten te Zurich, te Bernen, te Schaphousen, te Sainct Gal, te Chnr der Rhetzen, ende hare Bondtghenoten, te Meylhousen ende Biennen, byden welcken dat haer oock de Dienaers vande Kercke van Geneven ghevoecht hebben. Item de Belijdenisse des gheloofs der Ghemeynten van Francrijck. Gheprint tot Nordwitz by Antonium de Solemne, 1568. 8°.

The confession of the Swiss and French reformed churches printed for the use of the refugees in London. A copy has been recently acquired by the Cambridge University Library.

1569. R. Gonsalvius Montanus. Der heyliger Hispanischer Inquisitie, etlicke listighe secrete Consten ende practijcken, ontdeckt ende int licht ghebracht. Item eenige bijzondere Exempelen . . . wt dewelcke men . . . der Inquisiteuren practijcken . . . insien ende speuren mach. Nu nieuwelick in onse Nederlandsche sprake overgheset. . . . 1569. 8°.

This Dutch edition of the Latin work (printed at Heidelberg by Michael Schirat, 1567) is in the same type and style as the 1568 Belijdenisse above. A copy is in the Cambridge University Library. At end is an address in verse from the printer to the reader. No printer's name or place is given.

There is an Arthur Solence in St. Olave's, Southwark, in 1598–1600. See R. of A. III, pp. 2, 37, 76.

1583. SORLEYS, HANCE, Cripple-gate Ward, Dutchman, printer, II, 317.

1549. SOULL, HENRY, servant to Richard Grafton, q.v.

SPILMAN, SIMON.

1567. — in Aldersgate Ward, among the Dutch denizens, occurs the entry of "Spilmans wife" (in England), 2 years. I, 327.

This English bookbinder is known by the entries of his taking apprentices in the Stationers' Registers, up to the year 1569. His abode is not mentioned, but the above entry may perhaps refer to him and suggest his whereabouts. We may notice in connection with this name John Spilman, who was Her Majesty's jeweller, but had granted to him letters patent in 1598 "to collect lynin ragges &c. for making writing paper or any other paper," he having erected mills for the purpose. See Acts of Privy Council, 1598-9, p. 106. He appears also in 1591-2 (p. 374) with a "Letter of assystance" for the same purpose.

1583. STAMFOLD, BARTHOLOMEW, Farringdon Without, printer, Dutch. II, 335.

In 1576, Fleet Yard, Farringdon Without, there is a Bartholomew Samford, servant to Barbara Lymberger (II, 170), and in 1586 one of the same name in St. Clements Danes or the Savoy within the liberty of the Duchy of Lancaster, valued at iij li., was certified to have no goods. There is also a denization of a Bartholomew Sandforde from the dominion of the King of Spain, 8 July, 1586. Denizations, p. 215. Perhaps the same person.

1571. STARKE, PETER, St. Dunstan's, Tower Ward, bookprinter, and Liskyn his wife, and 3 maiden children, Lyskyn, Johane, and Martyn, all born in Gelderland, here 3 years "for savegard of there lyves." No church. II, 132.

STARKERFELSER, HENRY. See ROCHEFORTH.

STELL, HANS, published 1569-85, according to Arber.

1567. — Dutch Church Reg. I, 370.

1568. — John Stell and Arnold Vaukyll, both born in Andwerpe and stacyoners, Douthmen, were committed to the Counter in the Poultry by the Lord Mayor, for causing to be printed by John Alday a book of 8 small pp. in French on the tyranny of the Duke of Alva, dated 18 Sept., 1568. They came over for religion and remained in the Duke of Norfolk's place. See Arber II, 745.

1571. — Liberty of Creechurch, Algate Ward, stationer, born at Antwerp, here about 4 years 7 months, came for religion. Dutch Church.

Also Dyngyn Stell with her father, II, 68.

II, 66.

- 1576 (?) STELL, HANS (continued) [TEELIE], with a servant Frauncis (possibly F. Trots, q.v.) II, 164.
1578. — Schilders was stopped in printing a book for Stell in 1578, because both were aliens. See under SCHILDERS.
1581. — In a letter of Jan Janssen of 25 Feb., from Dordrecht, to the London Dutch Church, he asks them to refer for knowledge of his affairs to Hans Stel Bookseller at “Ducx plaetse.” See Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels, Vol. III, No. 694). This is the Duke of Norfolk’s place mentioned above, and agrees with the liberty of Creechurch.
1582. — [STELE], and Dugine his daughter, and Henry Exendall his servant. II, 224.
- In 1588 a Hans Stell is mentioned in the Dutch Church Register, but there are more than one of the name.
1593. — Archbishop Whitgift wrote to the Dutch Church, recommending “this poore man Haunce Stell your Countreman of your congregation whoe likewise is knowen bothe to me and unto you, to be a very honest poore man that he may succede in the same roome” [that of Common Cryer or Outroope, following Joose de Puyte]. See Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels, Vol. III, No. 1,294).
1549. SYMONDSE, PETER, servant to Andrew Hester, q.v.

TRESSELL, CHARLES.

1571. ——— St. Alban's, Woodstreet, Criplegate Ward, eldest son of Adrian Tressell, schoolmaster, Dutch, a graver of letters for printers; they have dwelled in and about London 5 years. I, 405. The father Adrian was made denizen 20 Feb., 1562. Denizations, p. 234.
- Charles, mentioned as son of Adrian. II, 18.
1576. ——— [TREASURE], St. Giles Criplegate, valued at xx s. II, 174.
1582. ——— [TRESWER], Copthall in Moore Lane, Vintry Ward, poll iiiij d. II, 248.
- 1582-3. ——— [TRESSA], Criplegate Ward, a carver to the printers, and Agata his wife. II, 269.

TROTS, FRANCIS.

1583. ——— Algate Ward, bokeseller. II, 320.
- "Fraunces Tortes (?)" Fleming, Bookbynder. II, 320.
This seems as if it must be a duplicate of the former entry, in the same Ward.
1585. ——— [TROTS], St. Helen's, Bishopsgate Street, and his wife. Dutch Church Reg. II, 383.
- 1594 (?) ——— [TROTS], Fenchurch Street, Parnell Trots, widow, and Anna her daughter, [perhaps the relicts of Francis]. Dutch Church Reg. II, 469.
Christopher Plantin had business with a bookseller or printer François Trots at Brussels some time during the period 1559-89. See Max Rooses' Plantin, p. 408. For a Francis, servant to Hans Teelie (? Stell), in Algate Ward in 1576, see Stell.

TURGAY, JOHN.

1562. ——— Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 1 June. Arber I, 187. The Dutch Church Register has the name Jan Törkhörs' in 1567, as also that of Matthys Törhørs'. It seems just possible that these may refer to Turgay and Turkeste below. See R. of A., I, 370.

TURKESTE, MATTHEW, St. Olave's, Tower Ward.

1568. ——— Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 2 Feb. Arber I, 365. Matthys Törhørs' appears in the Dutch Church Register of 1567. R. of A., I, 371.
1571. ——— "Mathewe, a Dutchman," servant to Thomas Hacket, I, 454.

1571. TURKESTE (continued) [TURKURSTER], of Deventer, haithe byne in London fower yeres. Duch Church. II, 135.
This latter entry appears next to that of Thomas Hacket, and thus serves probably to identify him with that bookseller's servant Matthew, on I, 454.
1549. TURNER, ADRYAN, servant to Walter Lynn, q.v.
TYLLAM VAN HAMBOURGH. See HAMBOURGH.
1549. TYSE (= Matthys), servant with Grafton, q.v.

1562. — [VAN TROLIER], from the dominion of the King of France, letters of denization, 9 March, 1562. Denizations, p. 244.
1564. — [VAUTROULLYER], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 2 Oct. Arber I, 279.
1567. — [WOLTRULIER], French, denizen, in England 3 years. I, 360.
It was in this year that he was joined with Jean Desserans as agent for Christopher Plantin. See note under DESSERANS.
1568. — [VANTROLLY], French, denizen, stationer, with his wife, and one child born in England. French Church. (From Strype's Annals). I, 392.
1571. — [VOWTRULLIE], bookbinder, denizen, and his wife, French, in England 8 years, in the said ward 6 years. I, 415.
- [VOTROLLYER], French, bookbinder, householder, came about 7 years past for religion, denizen. French Church. II, 16.
1574. — [VAUTROULLIER], printer and stationer, obtained Letters Patent from Elizabeth on 19 June for the privilege of certain Latin books for 10 years, including Beza's Novum Testamentum, Pagninus' Biblia Latina, and some classics. He was allowed 6 workmen, French or Dutch, during that time. See Arber II, 746, 886.

1576. VAUTROLLIER (continued) [VAN TROVELER], St. Anne's, Blackfriars, valuation xv li. II, 179.
- — Peter Tramley, Guillam Fotyne and Stephen Eygomante his servants. II, 182.
- In 1579 Richard Field, son of Henry Field of Stratford-on-Avon, was apprenticed to G. Bishop, and put with Vautrollier for 6 years to learn printing. He afterwards married Vautrollier's widow, and succeeded him in business. In 1580 Vautrollier was in Edinburgh, and till April 1582 at least. See Aldis, List of Books printed in Scotland, p. 122.
1582. — [VANTROLLIER], valuation xv li. II, 252.
- In 1582 Christopher Barker's report on printing patents speaks of that of Vautrolliere mentioned above, with which "he doth yet neither great good nor great harme." "He hath other small things wherewith he keepeth his presses on work, and also worketh for booksellers of the Company who kepe no presses." Arber I, 144.
1583. — [VANTROVILLIER], printer, and wife, French, came to get living, denizen 21 years. Androwes a Scotchman his servant, and 4 children born in England. II, 355.
- In 1584 he returned to Scotland, this time in flight for having printed Giordano Bruno. He returned to London in 1586, and died July, 1587. See Aldis, loc. cit.
- There is a note in the Catalogue of the Library of the Remonstrants at Rotterdam, p. 6, of a copy of a Greek Testament printed by him, London, 1587, on green paper.
- Of his children, Manasses Vautrollier, stationer, appears, in a list compiled in 1592-4, as a privileged person in the University and as dwelling in the Town of Cambridge; the MS. list is in the library of Downing College, Cambridge. This is the son to whom Thomas left the printing press and appurtenances he brought back from Scotland. See Plomer's Wills, p. 27. In 1633-4 Manasses is met with in Edinburgh as a bookbinder, where a complaint is brought against him to the Privy Council for illegal caption (Aldis, loc. cit.). Of the three other sons—Simeon, Thomas, and James—Thomas was admitted a freeman of the Stationers' Company by his master, John Legat, 7 May, 1604 (Arber II, 737).
1571. VAYTER, NICHOLAS, servant to John de Planche, q.v.
- Nicholas Valtere, servant, French, no denizen, 1567, Farringdon Within Ward (I, 360), is possibly the same. He was admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company 3 Mar., 1567, as Waltere. Arber I, 344.
- VERHAGEN, PETER.
1571. — [VARHAGGAN], Liberty of Christchurch, Algate Ward, of Antwerp, stationer, here 4 years, Dutch Church, servant. II, 69.

1576. VERHAGEN (continued) [VAROGAR], Precinct of Christchurch, late Duke's Place, per poll iiij d. II, 164.
- John Johnson (q.v.) and Verhagen were both of Antwerp, the former coming here apparently two years before the latter. It may be that they went away together also, as neither of them appears after 1576 in these lists, and in 1581 Henrick de Corput, writing from Dordrecht, describes Janssen as a compositor with Verhagen there. Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels), Vol. III, No. 696. Also this Peter may have been some relation of Godfried or Govaert van der Haeghen, the Antwerp printer of 1527-36, and his widow, Angell. See Duff's Century, p. 64. Peter printed at Dordrecht at least till 1625, including a small folio Dutch Bible in 1581, Dathen's Psalms the same year, and Eusebius' Ecclesiastical History in 1613.
1582. VERNELL, ANTHONIE, servant to John de Horse, q.v.
Perhaps not connected with the printing trade at all: but his master was reported as having one press in 1583.
- VOLCKWINNER, COLLINUS, perhaps a pseudonym of Gilles van der Erve, q.v.
1564. VRE, JOHN, servant to Isacke Debridgens, per poll iiij d. I, 309.
- VYKE, JOHN DE.
1571. ——— Tower Ward, bookbinder, French, denizen, here 20 years. I, 454.
- [DEVICKE], St. Olave's, Tower Ward, of "Roane," denizen, here 20 years, bookbinder, French Church. II, 135.
- There is a denization of a John de Visque, Frenchman, 9 Mar., 1562. Denizations, p. 78.
- WALEY, JOHN.
1549. ——— John Oryns, servant with him in St. Leonard's, Aldersgate Ward. I, 169.
- WALTENELL, JOHN.
1576. ——— [VAULTNER], St. Anne's, Blackfriars, servant to Philip Cutter. II, 181.
1580. ——— [WALTNEELL], Dutchman, admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, and sworn 1 Feb., 1580. "He hath paid vjs. in hand and is to Paie vjs. iiij d. more." Arber II, 681.
1582. ——— [WATERNYELL], St. Denis Backchurch, Langbourne Ward, valuation iij li. II, 234.

- 1582-3. WALTENELL, JOHN (continued) [WALKENELL], Criplegate Ward, denizen, stationer, of English Church; Marie his wife and Parnell his maid servant of Dutch Church. II, 271.

If there is a record of his denization it is hidden under some peculiar form of the name.

- — [WALTNELL], admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company [1580], and paid towards the poor 6s., and agreed to pay besides 7s. 8d. yet unpaid. "He is gone beyond the seas." II, 308.

1583. — [WALKENELLE], Langbourne Ward, Dutch, bookbinder. II, 337.

1591. — St. Denis Backchurch, Jacobyn Haw servant to John Watnall, "gone." II, 437.

1599. — [WALTENELL], St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, per poll viij d. III, 49.

In the Registers of the Dutch Church, Austin Friars, London, edited by Mr. Moens, under date 1589 is the baptism of Isaac Wanteneel f. Hans, 16 Nov. (p. 79). Christopher Plantin had transactions with Wantenell, as with several others in Blackfriars (Rooses' Plantin, p. 408), and he is mentioned frequently in the Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels), under forms Woudneel, Waldnell, Woodneel, and Woltnel. In 1586 he was in communication with Ortelius, and in 1587 was travelling back from Antwerp, being entrusted with books for Emanuel van Meteren and Colius in London (Nos. 144, 149); and in 1591, 1592, 1596, and 1598 there seem to be traces of his taking the same journey, so that perhaps he went every year or oftener (Nos. 196, 214, 294, 323). In 1592 Ortelius, in a letter to Meteren, mentions a Richard Verstegen at Antwerp from whom Woldnell got his copies of an English book (No. 218).

WALTERE, NICHOLAS. See VAYTER.

WHITCHURCH, EDWARD.

1549. — St. Bride's, Farringdon Without, "straungers in ye streteside seruauntes with Edward Whitchurche (Englishman), Paule Seygar, Jasper Ferrall, John Magwysssher, John Ferrom, Jasper Hallyer," each valued at iiij li. I, 180.

For Whitchurch's connection with Jacob van Meteren, see EMANUEL VAN METEREN above.

1571. WILFORDE, JAMES, Aldersgate Ward, printer, denizen, Dutch, here 1½ years. I, 437.

See note under WOELFAERT, p. 72.

1571. WILFORDE, JAMES (continued), St. Martin's le Grand, Aldersgate Ward, born in Cullen, denizen, and Katheryne his wife, born in Messick, both of English Church. II, 47.
1582. — Whitecross Street, St. Giles, Cripple-gate. II, 248.
- 1582-3. — Cripple-gate Ward, denizen, printer, and Katherin his wife, English Church. II, 268.
1583. — Cripple-gate Ward Without, Dutch, printer. II, 317.
1585. — St. Giles Without Cripple-gate, Catherine Wolfaert. Dutch Church Reg. II, 387.

This entry seems to belong to Wilford because of the place of abode.

In Milbourn's St. Mildred's, Poultry, London, 1872, p. 64, occurs a note of the burial in St. Mary Colechurch of "Mrs Woulforde Mr. Wolforde wief" stranger, July 14, 1591, which perhaps refers to Wilforde.

1549. WILLIAM, GARRET, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, servant to Robert Holder, Englishman. I, 159.
See Duff's Century, p. 170.
1571. WILLIAMS, ISBRECHE, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within, servant to Thomas Purfoot, q.v.
1571. WILLIAMS, WILLIAM, bookbinder, servant with W. Norton, q.v.
1562. WILLIAMSON, WILLIAM.

Admitted Brother of the Stationers' Company, 19 Nov. Arber I, 219.

A William Williamson was apprenticed to Richard Juge for 9 years from 2 Feb., 1562 (Arber I, 171), and made freeman 23 Apr., 1571 (ib. I, 447). There are books published by him at the White Horse in St. Paul's Churchyard and at his shop joining unto St. Peter's Church in Cornhill, 1571-74 (Arber V, 80, 84, 89, 92).

Baron de Schickler notes a book (I, 204), "Imprimé à Londres (sur la copie de Heydelberg), par Guill. Williamson, 1573," and another printed in the same type without printer's name.

There are, William Williamson, 1559, in East Smithfield (R. of A., I, 254), and William Gillam, St. Sepulchre's, Holborn Cross Quarter in 1564 (I, 299), which may either or both refer to the "Brother."

- 1549-50. WOELFAERT, JACOB, servant to Richard Grafton, q.v.
See under WILFORDE above, and also overleaf,

1571. WOELFAERT, JACOB (continued) [WOLFORTE, JAMES], St. Martin's le Grand, Aldersgate Ward, bookprinter, born in Cleveland, in London since the first year of Edward VI, and Katheryne his wife, born in the country of Horne, here about 14 years. II, 45.

In 1581 Jacob Wolfaert, compositor, and his wife, are referred to by Jan Janssen, writing from Dordrecht. See Ecclesiae Londino-Batavae Archivum (ed. Hessels), Vol. III, No. 694.

1594. — [WOLFART, JACOB], and his wife, Gutter Lane. Dutch Church Reg. II, 462.

- 1599 (?)—Widowe Woulford, St. Anne's, Blackfriars. III, 51.

This is perhaps his widow. It seems strange that there should be both James Wilforde and Jacob Woelfaert with wives named Catherine, and both in St. Martin's in 1571; but it will be noted that the descriptions are quite different, Wilforde having been here only 1½ years in 1571, whereas Woelfaert had been some 22 years. The birthplaces of the four are suspiciously near each other however, the country of Horne and Messick meaning perhaps the same thing, and Cullen (Cologne) being next door to Cleveland.

WOLF, REYNOLD, St. Faith's, Farringdon Within.
